Thomas Group Senior Vice President Gary Morrison Selected as Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE)

Irving, Texas—August 27, 2007—Thomas Group, Inc., (NasdaqGM: TGIS), a leading operations and process improvement firm, announced that Gary Morrison, SVP of the company's Healthcare Practice, has been selected as a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE), an international professional society of 30,000 health care executives. Fellow status is the highest level of professional achievement in ACHE. An elite group of dedicated leaders, Fellows comprise only 10 percent of ACHE affiliates or a little more than 3,300 health care executives.

To obtain fellow status, candidates must demonstrate their education, experience and leadership in the healthcare field for several years. Morrison, of Thomas Group, Inc., has been honored to receive the FACHE designation, which indicates board certification in healthcare management and ACHE Fellow status.

Morrison is Senior Vice President of Thomas Group's Healthcare Practice where he is co-leader with Eric Labe. In this role, they oversee the strategic direction of the group, business development activities, and ensure implementation teams continue to deliver consistent value to clients. Morrison has served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for Parkland Health and Hospital System where he was responsible for master planning the need for a replacement facility, implementing the outsourcing of Information Systems, and overseeing the Clinical Transformation initiative. Morrison has extensive healthcare experience serving in officer and executive leadership positions with Scott and White Memorial Hospital/Foundation, Saint Mary's Hospital (Mayo Foundation Hospital), and Robert Packer Hospital.

Morrison has a Masters in Health Services Administration from the University of Michigan-School of Public Health and received his BA in Political Science from the University of Michigan-Dearborn.
