

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thomas Group Senior Vice President Eric Labe Named to Leadership Detroit XXIX

Irving, Texas—August 16, 2007—Thomas Group, Inc., (NasdaqGM: TGIS), a leading operations and process improvement firm announced that Eric Labe, Senior Vice President has been selected to join Leadership Detroit XXIX. Leadership Detroit is a community leadership program founded in 1979 and sponsored by the Detroit Regional Chamber. The Leadership Detroit experience is a valuable and powerful program, helping to develop the leadership skills and knowledge of regional issues of senior level executives in Southeast Michigan. The mission of Leadership Detroit is to provide the foundation for a lifelong commitment to leadership by creating awareness of key issues that affect the Detroit region and to challenge emerging and existing community leaders to bring about positive change in the community through informed leadership.

Labe has over 15 years of senior management experience. He is considered a World Class expert and knowledge leader in process improvement. His most recent experience with Thomas Group includes overseeing business development and delivery of large implementation programs, including the creation and institutionalization of complete Value Chain Solutions for clients.

Prior to joining Thomas Group, Labe served as Chief Executive Officer of a high-tech company that created a link between patients, providers, and healthcare institutions using wireless technology. Prior experience included serving as General Manager for Bell Industries, where his division consistently led the company in income growth, sales growth, and return on investment.

Labe is a frequent public speaker on the topic of process improvement and making companies flexible and value driven. Labe is also a member of many organizations and boards including American Diabetes Association (Michigan Leadership Council), Automotive Industry Action Group (Health Focus Committee) and Michigan State Medical Society (Administration Simplification Committee). Labe holds a degree in Materials and Logistics Management with a minor in Operations Management from Michigan State University.

“I’m very excited to participate in Leadership Detroit XXIX. As we know, the city of Detroit and surrounding communities have quite a few challenges these days. I look forward to working with fellow colleagues to serve society and have a positive impact,” states Eric Labe, Senior Vice President of Thomas Group’s Healthcare Practice.
