Thomas Group selected as OTCBB Leader

Irving, Texas, December 10, 2004 Thomas Group, Inc. (TGIS.OB) today announced that it would be featured as part of Wall Street.com's OTCBB Leader's Fall 2004 list.

Wall-Street.com screened every company traded on the OTCBB to determine the top 15% that could be considered market leaders and were invited to appear in the "OTCBB Market Leaders Program". All the Market Leaders are reporting to the SEC. They are all active; having a product or service or are actively developing one. All are experiencing corporate events that should be of interest to prospective investors.

Jim Taylor, CEO said, "We are very pleased that we qualified to participate in this unique investor relations opportunity. We are delighted to accept this opportunity to use the "OTCBB Market Leaders Program" to present our exciting story to more people. Thomas Group also chose to participate because we wish to let the investment community know we wholeheartedly support recent efforts to embrace higher standards for public companies and greater transparency for the investing community. In today's corporate governance environment, it is gratifying to be recognized for responsible management and excellent compliance practices "

As a participant in the six-month, multi-part program, Thomas Group will appear in "OTCBB Market Leaders" listings in Barron's and will be included for six months in the featured "Leaders" section at the otcbbLeaders.com Website, with prominent links from many leading financial Websites.
