

Interim Management

Hospitals frequently require quality interim leadership to serve during periods of transition, corporate crisis, illness, sabbaticals, transformation/change management, mergers and acquisitions or project/program implementations.

How Thomas Group Can Help

We offer a wide range of expertise to help the interim executive navigate any operational or strategic challenge while the board and other executives create the stable atmosphere needed to recruit a permanent CEO or senior leaders.

We can provide seasoned professionals with direct experience in such areas as:

- Chief Executive Officers
- Chief Operations Officers
- Chief Financial Officers
- Chief Medical Officers
- Clinical Leadership
- Business Office Leadership
- Materials Management Leadership
- Director-level Financial Leadership

Our interim executives provide senior leadership to companies, have the experience and ability to drive change, and deliver results for clients and can be in place within days.
